Anadolu Anonim Türk Sigorta Şirketi provides the guarantees stated in this policy prepared based on the own explanations of the insurant and insured and by relying on the accuracy of their statements within the framework of the general terms and conditions stated in the policy and submitted to the insurant together with the policy, special terms and conditions, clauses or product booklet in which the relevant information is provided. The coverages that you can benefit from within the framework of the Insurance Agreement are limited with the coverages which you have already purchased and which are stated in the policy. In the product booklet given to you, there might be explanations regarding certain coverages that you have not purchased. Rather than the product booklet, only the policy will be taken into consideration in order to determine to which coverages you are entitled for the right of use. In case of any damage, it is obligatory to document the issues regarding which reduction of premium has been entitled based on the statements of the insurant during the signing of the Agreement. Otherwise, deduction will be made from the relevant damage claim at the ratio of the reduction of premium in accordance with the relevant article of the Insurance General Terms and Conditions.

If an e-mail address is given, product booklet and information form can be sent to your mail address with the policy. In addition, product booklets and information forms are also available on our website www.anadolusigorta.com.tr
